2. Program Information

- Master of Public Policy (MPP)

The Master of Public Policy (MPP) program is designed to provide a global perspective and professional expertise in public policy areas. The program is highly regarded both in and outside Korea, particularly among developing nations and government officials. The faculty with outstanding research backgrounds and empirical knowledge offer a leading curriculum that integrates theory and practice. The highly diverse student composition provides a unique educational environment. Both domestic and international students from all walks of life, including the government, the media and NGOs are able to share ideas, knowledge and experiences, and build a dynamic global network. The MPP students should take core courses and declare 2 concentrations.

- Core Courses:
  - Analysis of Market and Public Policy
  - Quantitative Methods
- Study Areas:
  - Finance and Macroeconomic Policy
  - Trade and Industry Policy
  - Public Finance and Social Policy
  - Regional Development and Environment

- Master of Development Policy (MDP)

Based on KDI’s hand-on experience on development policy, the Master of Development Policy (MDP) program examines various socio-economic issues in both the theoretical and the practical framework. The program provides capacity building for international professionals, including government officials, development consultants and regional specialists who wish to contribute to development policymaking. Additional focus falls on fostering professionals in the field of Official Development Assistance (ODA). The MDP students should take core courses, a certain number of development track courses, and declare one concentration.

- Core Courses:
  - Analysis of Market and Public Policy
  - Introduction to Research methods
  - Introduction to Development Policy
