Ministry: The Environment & Quality of Life

Post: Laboratory Attendant

Salary: Rs 3,100 x 100 - 4,000 x 75 - 5,000 (MGG 25)

Effective Date: 22nd May, 1992

Qualifications:
1. By appointment of serving officers who possess as a minimum a pass at the Cambridge School Certificate in Biology or Chemistry or Physics or equivalent qualifications acceptable to the Public Service Commission.

2. Consideration will also be given to serving officers who have proven experience of laboratory work even if they do not have the qualifications specified at (1) above.

Duties:
(i) To be responsible for the general cleanliness of the laboratories, benches, apparatuses and glasswares;
(ii) To assemble apparatuses and prepare solutions for analytical work;
(iii) To keep a register of chemicals, specimen, glasswares and other apparatuses;
(iv) To assist the head of the laboratory in the requisitioning of laboratory chemicals and equipment;
(v) To keep balances and other apparatuses in working order;
(vi) To keep broken apparatuses in safe custody for audit or stock verification purposes;
(vii) To accompany officers on site visits for sampling and field analysis purposes;
(viii) To perform simple analytical work; and
(ix) To perform any other cognate duties as may be assigned.

CERTIFIED CORRECT

for Permanent Secretary

Date 2.2 MAY 1992