Nanyang Fellows Programme for Academic Year 2003-2004

The Nanyang Technological University (NTU), Singapore is offering the Nanyang Fellows Scholarships to pursue a full-time Nanyang Fellows Programme for the academic year 2003/2004.

2. The aim of the programme is to develop the potential of recipients as leaders of industry and/or Government. Candidates will spend three terms of study (ten and a half months) at the NTU for an intense period of classroom discussion, team projects and meetings with corporate and Government leaders. Training will also be given in skills required for effective leadership. The remaining one term of study (six weeks) will be spent at the Sloan School of Management, Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT), Boston, where candidates will be exposed to instructors already familiar through their textbooks, like, Lester Thurow, Jay Forester, Peter Senge and others. The website address www.nfp.ntu.edu.sg may be consulted for further information.

3. The Nanyang Fellows Scholarship will (partially or fully) provide each scholar with:

- (i) tuition fees at NTU and MIT
- (ii) return economy air passage to MIT
- (iii) lodging at MIT
- (iv) cost for one overseas Business Study Mission
- (v) return economy air passage to Singapore
- (vi) monthly allowance.

4. Applications are invited from Officers of the Administrative Cadre who satisfy the following criteria laid down by NTU:

- Preferably be aged between 33 and 45 years with at least eight years of managerial experience;
- possess excellent undergraduate degrees;
- have demonstrated leadership qualities and potential in his/her organization and in community service;

A good score in the Graduate Management Admission Test (optional) will be an advantage.

5. The selected candidate will be required to enter into a bond to follow and complete the course and to serve the Government of Mauritius for a period of at least three years after completion of the course.

6. I should be grateful if this circular could be brought to the notice of officers of the Administrative Cadre serving in your Ministry. Officers who are interested to follow the course are requested to complete the enclosed application form and submit same through you so as to reach this Ministry by 23 October, 2002.
