Public Service Excellence Award 2016
Guidelines
INTRODUCING THE PUBLIC SERVICE EXCELLENCE AWARD

The theme for the 2016 edition of the Public Service Excellence Award is “Excellence - Doing ordinary things extraordinarily well”

Every year, the PSEA is implemented over a particular theme which is directly related to organisational or group performance. For the 2016 edition, the theme has been specially chosen to inspire those Public Organisations which are committed to making things happen with a view to respond to the needs of their respective customers in an efficient and effective manner, while adopting ordinary means and ways to achieve excellence.

Participation in the PSEA 2016 will, undoubtedly, encourage organisations to use simple ways by transforming them into strategic ideas that can be implemented as intelligent tools or techniques to provide a better service with available resources in the organisation. This constitutes the stepping stone towards meaningful improvement of service delivery across the Civil Service.

The theme is a summon to Public Officers to be agents of change and to Public Organisations to act as facilitators for concrete achievements while exploring simple and direct ways to serve the public at large.

This year’s edition will, thus, reward those organisations that have gone out of their way despite the limited resources available and have done ordinary things extraordinarily well in the conduct of their official business.
