Degree Education Programs Sponsored by Ministry of Commerce PRC

I Program Description

1. General Information

Starting from the year of 2008, Degree Education Programs sponsored by the Ministry of Commerce of People's Republic of China is designed to foster high-end business officials and managerial personnel for the recipient countries, offering one-year and two-year master programs as well as three-year doctoral programs for the purpose of educating high-end and inter-disciplinary talent working in the applied fields of government, trade, foreign affairs, agriculture, technology, education, culture and health, building intellectual capacity and facilitating the economic and social development of the recipient countries. These programs provide assistance to governmental officials, research fellows, and senior managerial personnel on their master and doctor education in China, which are fully conducted in English. Admission requirements include a bachelor's degree, relevant working experiences, and decent physical conditions, essential for the high-compact curriculum needed for the degrees.

Because the education system is relatively short and we ask the trainees should have gotten the bachelor degree and owned the certain working experiences. All of the requirement needed in order to understand the teaching content, adapt the high level studying and finally smoothly get the master degree.

As for the positive effects and good results brought by these programs in strengthening economic ties and friendship between China and the recipient countries, the Ministry of Commerce of People's Republic of China will continuously intensify its efforts in enlarging the enrollment scale and improving the quality of education. Also the local government attaches great importance to the China Aids Degree Education Program.

2. Overall of the University

Harbin is the capital and largest city of Heilongjiang Province in Northeast China, as well as the tenth most populated city in the People's Republic of China. Harbin, which is originally a Manchu word meaning "a place for drying fishing nets", grew from a small rural settlement on the Songhua River to become one of the largest cities in Northeast China. Founded by Russia in 1898 with the coming of the Trans-Manchurian Railway, today known as the Chinese Eastern Railway, the city first prospered as a region inhabited by an overwhelming majority of the Jewish immigrants. It is known for its bitterly cold winters and is often called the "Ice City."

Harbin is notable for its beautiful ice sculptures in winter and its Russian legacy, and it still plays an important part in Sino-Russian trade today. In the 1920s, the city was considered China's fashion capital since new designs from Paris and Moscow reached there first before arriving in Shanghai. In 2010, Harbin was declared a UNESCO "City of Music".

Founded in 1952, Harbin University of Commerce is the first multidisciplinary commerce-oriented university in China. It is one of the key university in Heilongjiang Province. It covers a total area of 1,144,300 m<sup>2</sup>, including an area of 746,700 m<sup>2</sup> for school buildings. Covering eight disciplines, Economics, Management, Engineering, Law, Literature, Science, Medicine(Pharmaceutical Science) and Art etc. The university consist of twenty-two schools, Institute of Commercial Economics and Institute of Commercial Engineering. At present, there are sixty-five majors, sixteen authorized center for doctoral degree, sixty-eight for Master's, 4 postdoctoral flow stations, 20 first-level discipline master degree programs, 17 specialized master programs and 4 postdoctoral workstations, one National Engineering Research Center of Innovative Anti-tumor Drug, one Engineering Research Center of Natural Anti-cancer Drugs certified by the Ministry of Education, one National Training Base for Vocational Education Teacher certified by the Ministry of Education, two provincial key laboratories, two provincial engineering centers, three humanities and social key research bases, two provincial engineering centers, three humanities and social science key research bases, one provincial philosophy, 60 Provincial quality (first-class) courses, 6 provincial teaching teams, social science key research base on Sino-Russian Trade, 5 provincial key university laboratories and 1 Provincial virtual teaching and research office.

HUC attaches great importance to foreign exchanges and cooperation. Focusing on student development, the school actively connects with international quality education resources and has established educational cooperation and academic exchange relations with 110 institutions in 27 countries and regions, including Russia, South Korea, Kazakhstan, the Netherlands, the United States, Japan, Norway and the United Kingdom. The university gives full play to its disciplinary advantages and characteristics, and actively sets up an international exchange platform. The university is a member of the Sino-Foreign Financial Education Alliance, a member of the Sino-Russian Economic University Alliance, a member of the China-Belarus University Alliance, a base for Chinese Language Proficiency Test (HSK), and a sponsor of the Northeast Asia Forum of 13 universities in five countries. The university has held many Sino-foreign exchange activities such as "Ice and Snow Sports Economic Forum", "China-Russia Graduate Academic Forum", "China-Belarus Academic Forum", and China-Ukraine Science and Technology Academic and Innovation Forum. The university is a study abroad training base of the China (Ministry of Education) Study Abroad Service Center, a partner institution of the Ministry of Commerce's "the Academic Education Programs Sponsored by Ministry of Commerce of PRC", a contractor of the Ministry of Commerce's foreign aid training program, and a scholarship institution entrusted by the Heilongjiang Provincial Government to study in China. It has trained more than 2,000 government officials, business executives and school teachers from 103 countries and regions in Asia, Africa, South America and the Caribbean, the South Pacific and the Commonwealth of Independent States. Since 2017, HUC began to enroll the Master of Tourism and Hospitality Management, China Aid program of the Ministry of Commerce of PRC, and has enrolled more than 200 official students from 38 countries. In the past decade, the school has trained more than 3,000 long-term and short-term students from more than 50 countries, including Russia, France, South Korea, the Netherlands, and Japan, and sent thousands of Chinese students to Russia, France, South Korea, the United States, Norway, Japan, the United Kingdom and other countries.

School of Tourism & Cuisine of HUC

Derived from the Tourism and Cuisine Department of Business School in Heilongjiang Province, Tourism and Cuisine School of Harbin University of Commerce was established in 1959 and renamed after consolidation. At present, the majors of tourism management and cuisine science management are offered in the school. Among these faculties, tourism management is the key major of Heilongjiang Province and approved to offer Master Degree in Heilongjiang Province. The School is qualified for provision of Master degree both in research and study. It was approved as the Training Base for Vocational Education of Tourism and Cuisine, the Training Base for Master Degree of Tourism and Cuisine and Principal Test Center of Self-taught Examination of Tourism and Cuisine and the Principal Test Center of Self-taught Examination of Tourism Management. Shangda Hotel, with 18 thousand square meters, which is managed by the School has been the demonstration internship center awarded by the Education Department of Heilongjiang Province and the base of involving teaching, research, and production. The School is furnished with multi-layer, multi-category and full function structure in high education of tourism management and cuisine.

The School is blessed with excellent faculties, Tourism Research Institute, the Chinese Fast Food Research Center, Chinese Food Culture Institute, prominent experts, and leaders of provincial disciplines. Most young lecturers hold Master or Doctor degrees. The School adheres to the principal of people oriented education, international education and lifetime education. By provision of scientific curriculum and integration of quality, knowledge and capability, bilingual education is also paid great attention, which has received compliments by both employers and other universities. At present, the School is known as the cradle for inter-disciplinary talents in tourism and cuisine.

The Brief Introduction and the Picture of Comprehensive Building for Foreign Students

In the year of 2016, HUC paid a large amount of money to build one new comprehensive building especially for the China Aids degree education program students. This building stands by the side of good scenic campus mountain. When you stand by the window side of classroom or dormitory, you will have an overlooking of the whole campus. Teaching classrooms are also equipped in this building with sunshine, so that students can live and study without going out to other buildings even in cold winter. Student accommodation is single and each dormitory is designed according to the high standard of hotel rooms, with its own bathroom, refrigerator and central air-conditioning. And each floor is equipped with a common laundry room, kitchen and classrooms. We are committed to creating the most comfortable environment, so that every student who comes to Harbin University of Commerce can feel the warmth of home. Here are the picture of the comprehensive building,

Arrangement of Research and Investigation Activities

In order to enable the master's students of foreign aid to better understand the current situation and future development trends of the tourism and hotel industries, a practical investigation and research section has been added to the students' training program, which will be carried out over two semesters, including an investigation of traditional Chinese culture and an investigation and research on the development of the tourism and hotel industries.

The practical investigation activities will be conducted in the second and third semesters. The setting of the practical investigation course enables students to personally experience the profound historical and cultural heritage, abundant tourism resources, and modern tourism management practices of our country. The students' practical activities will be carried out in typical regions such as East China for professional investigations. During the investigations, they will learn and exchange about the construction and management of famous tourist attractions in China, the protection and management of cultural landscapes, smart scenic area management and digital marketing, the chain operation management of international tourism enterprises, brand operation management, the operation and management of theme hotels, and the operation and promotion of star hotels.
