I. Program Description

1. Basic Information

1) Introduction

About the Academic Education Programs sponsored by the Ministry of Commerce of the People’s Republic of China for Developing Countries

The Academic Education Programs sponsored by the Ministry of Commerce (MOE) of People’s Republic of China for developing countries initiated in 2008 offers master’s and doctoral programs for the purpose of educating high-end and inter-disciplinary talents working in the applied fields of government, trade, foreign affairs, agriculture, technology, education, culture, health, energy, transportation and public administration, building intellectual capacity and facilitating the economic and social development of the recipient countries. These programs provide assistance to government officials, research fellows, and senior managerial personnel on their master’s and doctoral education in China, which are fully conducted in English. Admission requirements include a bachelor’s degree, relevant working experiences, and decent physical conditions, essential for the high-compact curriculum needed for the degrees.

The program helps graduates undertake an increasingly significant role in the economic development cooperation between China and their home countries, highly valued by the government of the recipient countries.

About the program of Master of Education in Educational Leadership and Policy (M.Ed-ELP) at ECNU

East China Normal University (ECNU) is a leading research university in China, with distinguished programs in education.

Since Fall Semester of 2010, ECNU has started a one-year Master of Education in Educational Leadership and Policy (M.Ed-ELP) Program, approved by both of the Ministry of Education and the Ministry of Commerce, the People’s Republic of China. This program is an important measure for East China Normal University to promote education internationalization, develop into a higher-level institution, and cultivate talents in the field of education from developing countries. It is an integral part of China's international education assistance program based on equality and mutual benefit, and also a joint action of South-South and North-South cooperation on the realization of Education 2030 and sustainable national development.

It is featured by 1) originality. It is the first master program of a developing country aiming to cultivate future education leaders in other developing countries that are in urgent need of education reform; 2) combining local practices with international

As for students, there are 15,538 undergraduate students, 17,238 graduate students, 3,780 PhD students and 1,504 international students (degree students) on campus. ECNU has two main campuses located in Putuo and Minhang districts respectively, which overall has a total area of about 207 hectares.

The university follows closely diplomatic policies of the country by strengthening cooperation in related fields with other developing countries. Currently, there are altogether 33 universities undertaking foreign assistance Master’s degree programs and East China Normal University after Peking University and Tsinghua University, becomes the third of those 33 undertakers. In April, 2014, ECNU, with the International Center for Teacher Education (ICTE) as the degree program undertaker, is approved by the Ministry of Education as one of the 12 national undertakers of Foreign Assistance programs. In December, 2014, approved again by both the Ministry of Education and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of China, the “China-ASEAN Centre for Education and Training, ECNU” was established within ICTE. Besides, the “China-ASEAN Centre for Education and Training, ECNU” has become a council member of the Alliance of China-ASEAN Education and Training Centers since 2015 and a standing council member since 2016. Wang Rongming, the then vice president of ECNU, is the vice chairman of the Alliance, and Peng Liping, the director of the International Center for Teacher Education, is the deputy secretary-general of the Alliance. In July 2019, the center was awarded the honorary titles of "2019 Excellent China-ASEAN Education and Training Center" and "2019 Most Influential Center" by the Alliance.

2) About the Program Host institute at ECNU

The International Center for Teacher Education (ICTE) at ECNU is an international institute with teacher education research and training, intended to provide professional support for the “UNESCO Chair in Teacher Education” set by UNESCO in this university. It carries out in-depth research in teacher education reform, teacher professional criteria, teacher professional development, etc.

In 2008 and 2009, in collaboration with International Institute of Capacity Building in Africa (IICBA) within UNESCO, ICTE organized high-end seminars for African teachers.

Since 2010, ICTE has started to undertake the Master of Education in Educational Leadership and Policy sponsored by the Ministry of Commerce, and has now offered the program to as many as 265 students from 56 countries, with 238 graduates and 29 candidates. Simultaneously, since 2011, ICTE has been carrying out high-end seminar programs sponsored also by the Ministry of Commerce (including one held abroad, Seminar on Sustainable Development Management of Higher Education in Cuba, and one held online, Seminar on Comprehensive Measures for Rural Teachers from Developing Countries (2021), and has so far offered seminars for 1068 participants from 69 countries.

Moreover, entrusted by the Chinese Embassy in South Africa and sponsored by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the People’s Republic of China, ICTE undertook the Seminar on Education Policy and Management of Basic Education for South Africa in 2019, receiving 29 participants.

From 2016, the center started to implement “UNESCO-China (The Great Wall) Co-sponsored Fellowships program - ECNU Advanced Training Programme” commissioned by UNESCO Headquarters, supported by the Permanent Mission of Academic Education Programs Sponsored by Ministry of Commerce PRC

China to UNESCO, the National Commission of China for UNESCO, the Department of International Cooperation and Exchanges of Ministry of Education of China, and the China Scholarship Council (CSC). So far, ICTE has conducted six GWF programs, enrolling 100 students from 20 African and Asian countries, 96 of whom have completed the programme.

Then in September 2019, ICTE initiated two new programs - CSC China-Africa Friendship Scholarship and Shanghai Municipal Scholarship, recruiting respectively 7 students from 6 countries and 2 students from Tanzania.

In September, 2021, ICTE recruited one Master’s student from CSC “China-Cambodia Leaders Commitment Program”.

3) Living and study on campus

Shanghai where the university is located has a humid subtropical climate and experiences four distinct seasons. Winters are chilly and damp, with northwesterly winds from Siberia which can cause nighttime temperatures to drop below freezing, although most years there are only one or two days of snowfall. Summers are hot and humid with some days over 40 °C (104 °F); occasional downpours or freak thunderstorms can be expected. The city is also susceptible to typhoons in summer and the beginning of autumn, none of which in recent years has caused considerable damage. The most pleasant seasons are spring, although changeable and often rainy, and autumn, which is generally sunny and dry. The city averages 4.2 °C (39.6 °F) in January and 34 °C (93.2 °F) in July.

There are five residential halls for overseas students on two campuses of ECNU. Students of this program are provided with free single room accommodation equipped with independent bathrooms, public kitchens and washing machines. Besides, an air-conditioner, a desk, a chair, a bed, and a wardrobe are also provided within each room.

Student activity centers and fields on campuses are open to foreign students.
