Trainee Educators (Primary) (Oriental Languages) enlisted under "NOTE" will be required to follow an upgrading course of one year duration to be organised by the Ministry of Education, Culture and Human Resources. During the one year period they will draw an all-inclusive allowance of Rs 8,600 monthly. On successful completion of the course they will be eligible for enlistment on the two-year training course for Trainee Educators (Primary) (Oriental Languages) and will then draw allowance in the scale for Trainee Educators (Primary) (Oriental Languages).

Candidates should produce written evidence of knowledge claimed.

Training:

To follow a two-year training course, both theoretical and practical, in all aspects of the work of an Educator (Primary) leading to the award of a Teacher's Diploma (Primary), at such institution as may be approved. Selected candidates will be trained to teach all subjects forming part of the school curriculum but will be exposed to specialization in the teaching of the appropriate Oriental Language.

On successful completion of the training, Trainee Educators (Primary) (Oriental Languages) will be considered for appointment to the grade of Educator (Primary), as and when vacancies occur.
