Training Sessions for newly recruited Management Support Officers

The Independent Commission Against Corruption (ICAC), in collaboration with this Ministry, is organising a 13-hour training session, for newly recruited Management Support Officers (MSOs). The training will dwell on Integrity, Corruption and other related issues in the Public Service.

2. The training session would comprise both theoretical and practical modules to enable participants to:
- (a) develop a proper understanding of corruption and malpractices;
 - (b) situate the roles and responsibilities of the Management Support Officers in Public Administration; and
 - (c) empower them to be able to resist, reject and report corruption.
3. The training sessions, in three different batches, will be held from 12:45 hrs to 16:00 hrs at the ICAC Lecture Theatre, Réduit Triangle, Moka, and will be conducted in four sessions of a duration of 3 hrs 15 mins each, as per table.
