APPENDIX A

EXCELLENT CUSTOMER SERVICE AWARD SCHEME
IN THE PUBLIC SERVICE - 2004

1. Introduction

In the context of Administrative Reforms, several initiatives are being adopted in order to improve customer satisfaction through the provision of timely and effective services. The primary aim of the award is to recognize the achievement of Ministries/Departments in providing effective customer service and to further promote a customer-focused culture in the Public Service.

The scheme was launched in July last year and it met with resounding success. The Ministry of Civil Service Affairs and Administrative Reforms, in collaboration with the Mauritian Quality Institute, is renewing the Excellent Customer Service Award this year to promote and sustain the momentum of providing good customer service in the Public Service. Such awards will encourage Ministries and Departments to provide quality, efficient and cost-effective customer services. These awards would be given to Ministries and Departments which have undertaken improvement efforts and have excelled in customer service. All Ministries and Departments, irrespective of their staff size and nature of services, can compete for the Award.

There will be specific Awards for the Police Department and the Health Sector to recognize improvements in the two most visible departments in the public eyes.

2. Objective of the Awards

- To foster healthy competition leading to the improvement of the quality of services rendered by public sector organisations.

3. Assessment Criteria

The assessment criteria for the awards will be based on the three main areas of Quality, Efficiency and Cost Effectiveness focusing on key indicators/attributes pertaining to customer focus, leadership and team spirit, process management, system improvement, innovation and application of information technology, productivity and the effective use of resources.
