- (1) A prosecution for an offence under this Act shall not be instituted except by or with the consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions.
- (2) Any person charged with, an offence under this Act may be arrested, or a warrant for his arrest may be issued and executed, and he may be remanded in custody or on bail, notwithstanding that the consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions to the institution of a prosecution for the offence has not been obtained, but no further or other proceedings shall be taken until that consent has been obtained.

11 Place of offence

For the purposes of the trial of any person for an offence under this Act, the offence shall be deemed to have been committed either at the place in which it was actually committed or at any place in Mauritius in which the offender may be found.

12 Exclusion of public from trial

- (1) Without prejudice to any powers that a court may possess to order the exclusion of the public from any proceedings, the court may subject to subsection (2), in any proceedings for an offence under this Act or on appeal from such proceedings, order that all or any section of the public shall be excluded during all or any part of the proceedings, on application by the Director of Public Prosecutions on the grounds that the publication of any matter to be disclosed in the proceedings is likely to prejudice the safety or interests of Mauritius.
- (2) The court shall always pass sentence in public.

13 Proof of communication with agents of foreign states

- (1) Where proceedings are instituted against any person for an offence under section 3(1) (c), the fact that he has communicated or attempted to communicate with an agent of a foreign state, whether within or outside Mauritius, shall be evidence that person has, for a purpose likely to prejudice the safety or interests of Mauritius, obtained or received information which is calculated or intended to be, or might be, directly or indirectly, of use to a foreign state.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) and without prejudice to the generality of that subsection, a person shall be deemed to have communicated or attempted to communicate with an agent of a foreign state if, within or outside Mauritius -
 - (a) he has consorted or associated with, or visited the address of, an agent of a foreign state;
 - (b) he has obtained or been supplied with or has been found in possession of the name or address of, or any other information relating to, an agent of a foreign state.
- (3) Any address, whether within or outside Mauritius, at which an agent of a foreign state resides or carries on business or to which he resorts for the purpose of giving or receiving any communication, or which is used for the receipt or despatch of any communication intended for an agent of a foreign state, shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to be the address of an agent of a foreign state and any communication sent to that address to be a communication with the agent.

14 Proof of acts or omissions

Where proceedings are instituted against any person for an offence under this Act and it is alleged that any act or omission occurred for a purpose or in a manner likely to prejudice the safety or interests of Mauritius, the court may infer that the act or omission occurred for that purpose or in that manner from the circumstances of the case or the conduct or known character of that person as proved.

15 Presumption as to communication

Where proceedings are instituted against any person for an offence under this Act, any code word, plan, article, document or information relating to or used in any prohibited place which is made, obtained, received, collected, retained, recorded, used, published or communicated by a person acting without lawful authority, shall be deemed to have been made, obtained, received, collected, retained, recorded, used, published or communicated for a purpose or in a manner likely to prejudice the safety or interests of Mauritius.

16 Arrest without warrant

- (1) Any person who is found committing an offence under this Act, or who is reasonably suspected of having committed or of being about to commit an offence under this Act, may be arrested without a warrant.
- (2) A person arrested under subsection (1) shall be brought before a court within 4 hours of his arrest.

17 Search warrant

- (1) Where a Magistrate is satisfied by information on oath that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that an offence under this Act has been or is about to be committed, he may issue a search warrant authorising any police officer named in it -
 - (a) to enter at any time any premises or place named in the warrant;
 - (b) to search the premises or place and every person found therein; and
 - (c) to seize any plan, article, or document, or anything that is or may be evidence of an offence under this Act having been or being about to be committed.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), where it appears to a police officer, not below the rank of Superintendent, that the case is one of great urgency and that, for the protection of the safety and interests of Mauritius, immediate action is necessary, he may, by a written order under his hand, give to any police officer the same powers that may be given by a warrant of a Magistrate under subsection (1).

18 Penalties

Any person who commits an offence under this Act for which no penalty is specifically provided shall, on conviction, be liable to penal servitude for a term not exceeding 15 years.
