Training Courses for Prosecutors and Enquiring Officers

This Ministry, in collaboration with the Office of the Director of Public Prosecution, is proposing to run a 5-day training course for Prosecutors and Enquiring Officers during the month of September 2015.

2. The objectives of the course are to enable participants to:
- (i) produce evidence in court and proceed with the enquiry stage, follow up and drafting of information including the charging of accused in an efficient way;
 - (ii) record statements from witnesses and assume the role of an enquiring officer in the cross examination of witnesses;
 - (iii) fulfill the role of a prosecutor efficiently; and
 - (iv) handle evidence and proof with utmost confidentiality.

The course contents are enclosed for your information.

3. It would be appreciated if you could designate and submit in order of priority, a list of officers posted in your Ministry/Department to follow the course, as per Pro-forma at Annex, by email on trainingmcsar@govmu.org and/or adkeesoondoyal@govmu.org. The list of your designated officers should reach the Ministry at latest by Thursday 27 August 2015.

4. After the training, the officers are expected to share the knowledge acquired and skills developed with their colleagues, and their immediate supervisor will have to submit a report on the post training impact and transfer of learning.
