Management of the E-Learning System (ELS) by the Civil Service College, Mauritius

As you are aware this Ministry launched, in March this year, a new learning tool known as the E-Learning System (ELS). The ELS is a web-based learning platform using multimedia, including sound and videos, that can be accessed through website on <http://training.civilservice.govmu.org>.

2. So far, the ELS has been accessible only to officers of the Civil Service possessing a "govmu.org" email account. Since it has been decided that the ELS platform will now be managed by the Civil Service College, Mauritius (CSCM), arrangements have also been made for the ELS to be accessible to all officers of the Public Sector, including those from Parastatal Organisations and Local Authorities. As such, it will now be possible for any officer to follow online training courses by applying for an email account to the Civil Service College, Mauritius which will allow access to the ELS platform. The application form can be downloaded from the CSCM website on www.cscm.mu and sent to the College on the following address:

Civil Service College, Mauritius
4th Floor, Atom House
Royal Street
Port Louis
Tel: 208 7653 Fax: 213 7187

3. In view of its huge potential as a new learning tool, the ELS can greatly facilitate in the continuous professional development of officers in the public sector at large. Officers can learn at their own pace and without disruption to their normal work activities in their respective organisations. All officers are therefore invited and encouraged to make full use of the ELS to enhance their work knowledge and skills.

4. Supervising Officers are requested to bring the contents of this Circular Letter to the attention of all officers including those in Parastatal Bodies falling under their purview as well as those in Local Authorities.
