Celebration of Africa Day of the Civil Service and Administration

The Africa Day of Civil Service and Administration will be celebrated on the 23rd June 2002 around the theme: The Civil Service: A vehicle for ensuring better services for all.

In order to mark the event, this Ministry is organizing a programme and it is proposed inter alia to make a short film projecting the "Achievements of the Mauritian Civil Service" with particular focus on the theme of the Africa Day.

You are kindly invited to submit proposals, if any, of any significant innovations which could be integrated in the film. Such written proposals should reach the Ministry by Friday 11 May 2002 at latest. If your proposal is retained, arrangements will be made to carry out the filming of the project.

Additional information may be obtained from Mrs Y. Moorghen, Principal Assistant Secretary (Tel. 201-1434).
