Seminar for Chairmen/Directors and Members of Statutory Boards and Committees

In the context of Administrative Reform Strategies, much emphasis is being laid on good governance, transparency and accountability in the management of public funds.

2. In order to assist public officers who are Chairmen/Directors of State-owned/Controlled Companies and Chairmen and members of Statutory Boards/Committees to discharge their duties in a professional manner, it is proposed to organise a half-day seminar with the overall objective of promoting financial probity and efficient management of financial practices in the public sector.
3. In view thereof, it would be appreciated if the particulars, as listed in the Annex, of Chairmen/Directors of State-owned/controlled Companies and Chairmen and members of Statutory Boards/ Committees falling under the aegis of your Ministry could be submitted to this Ministry by Monday 17 March 2003 to facilitate the conduct of the seminar.
4. Additional information may be obtained from Mrs Y. Moorghen, Principal Assistant Secretary, Administrative Reforms Unit, on 201-1434.
