Training Course for Prosecutors and Enquiring Officers

This Ministry is proposing to mount and organize a five-day training course for prosecutors and Enquiry Officers in collaboration with the DPP's Office. The training session will be held for a first batch of officers in April 2012. Based on the feedback from trainees, the course may be replicated at a later stage.

2. The course contents are enclosed for your information.
3. In this context, Ministries/Departments are invited to submit, the names of officers who would be following the training course. The proposed nominations should reach the Ministry of Civil Service and Administrative Reforms, Human Resource Development Division, 4th Floor, Atom House, Royal Street, Port Louis, at latest by Monday 16 January 2012, as per attached pro-forma.
4. I rely on your usual collaboration and support in our capacity building initiative for a modern and efficient public service.

S. Seebaluck
Senior Chief Executive
